Scope and Sequence

When you log into our website, you can view the entire course map—an interactive scope and sequence of all topics you will study. The units of study are summarized below:

COURSE POLICIES

This course conflict management and mediation course is created to teach those willing to create a safe and sustainable future, by managing and resolving conflicts with one another. Our most pressing global challenges we face today require that we show skillfulness in engaging with each other, recognizing how we can creatively approach our interdependent goals to create new opportunities for a better future.

There are both substantive and procedural ways that this course is infused with the theme of sustainability. Reading materials and assignments will be handled entirely through electronic means.

ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION

You are expected to attend all classes for this course, be prepared, and be on time. The class is built around your being in attendance and engaged in class activities, exercises and discussions. It is each student's responsibility to attend all sessions in order to receive your non-credited certification.

If you are absent for two or more consecutive class sessions due to a legitimate excuse, you are required to submit a letter signed by a person in a position to make an authoritative determination as to the validity of the absence, including the phone number of the individual who signed, and presented to GSFL prior or upon returning to training sessions. GSFL reserve the right to contact the person who signed your letter to check on the validity of the content and authority of the letter. These are the only situations in which you will be allowed to reschedule your course. If you fail to comply, no refunds are given for missed sessions or making up of missed sessions.

Students who miss class are responsible for obtaining all material and information that they missed. This includes any changes to the schedule that are announced in class.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

GSFL expects all students to uphold intellectual honesty in their academic work. In this class, it is essential that you demonstrate honor in maintaining the confidentiality of the role specific information for course role play exercises.
